

PROBLEM:

Working at home with a laptop on a desk can create multiple awkward postures and risk factors such as contact stress that could eventually lead to pain and repetitive stress injuries.

- ✓ Neutral posture is just as important for people that work at home as it is for people that work in the office.

SOLUTION:

Fellowes® Ergonomic Products help place you in a more comfortable, neutral position while working in order to help relieve pain and discomfort in the neck, shoulders, back, arms, wrists, and legs.
